

seeking in the sanctuary

Do you see the baptismal font or baptistry? We remember our baptisms when water was used to symbolize God's spirit at work within us. Draw a picture of what you see!

seeking:

Will you give me a drink?

3rd Sunday In Lent | Year A

MAIN IDEA: We can take care of each other, especially when we are different.

SCRIPTURE SUMMARY

John 4:5-42

She asked, "Why are you, a Jewish man, asking me for a drink? Don't you know that I am a Samaritan?" Jesus responded, "If you knew who I am, you would be asking me for living water."

"Living Water"

by Lauren Wright Pittman, inspired by today's gospel text, John 4:5-42

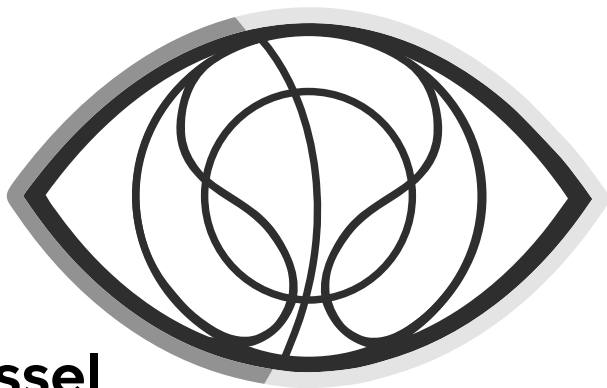

seeking in images

flip to the cover artwork & take a closer look!

Jesus and the Samaritan woman were both part of Jacob's family, so Jacob's well was like common ground for them. What are some things all people have in common?

Imagine you are in the artwork. Where would you be? Why?

vessel

The Seeking logo was designed by Lauren Wright Pittman. Do you see the vessel? The vessel represents the jar the woman leaves behind at the well after meeting Jesus. Color the vessel in the graphic above.

seeking in the scripture

These are some of the words from today's gospel text, John 4:5-42. Color the words below when you hear them in the service.

you drink but WHAT WORSHIP have
for to not and ME
woman so they the
of spirit is WATER
well who

Jesus and the woman at the well care for each other even though they do not agree on everything. Draw a picture of you caring kindly for a person with whom you do not always agree.

